information

When you pass through the main gate, under the River Ranch sign, you enter a paradise situated on the Pere Marquette River, surrounded by the Manistee National Forest.

We offer the perfect location for a special getaway for your family or small group, where you will be able to connect with each other in comfortable surroundings and disconnect from the outside world. Your privacy is assured by only accepting individual group reservations.

The two-story, Adirondack-style cabin, is filled with rustic charm. The double-story main room is anchored by a magnificent wood-burning fieldstone fireplace and is a welcome place to gather your family or small group.

Or relax on the expansive, screened in porch, comfortably settling into the cushioned, wicker furniture, looking towards the river.

The lodge offers six bedrooms, four full baths and two half baths. We accept reservations for up to eight guests.

There is a separate recreation building, the tackle house, which could be used for card games and has equipment for shuffleboard and croquet. The tackle house features two full bathrooms.

Canoes, paddles and flotation cushions are available for guests use.

Without leaving the property, you could enjoy fishing, extensive hikes and canoe trips on the river, which may reveal deer, wild turkeys, blue herons, trout, salmon and other wildlife.
